Is Oldest Japanese in Hawaii

The emperor of Japan has announced that he will give a coronation cup to any Japanese in Hawaii who was 80 years old. Emperor Yoshihito will keep the cup, as the oldest Japanese in Hawaii is but 75 years old. Mrs. Ryu Muramoto, who lives next to St. Andrew's Church, is the oldest living Japanese in Hawaii and her family is the only one boasting four generations in Honolulu among the Japanese. The oldest lady is a mother of M. Muramoto, the janitor at St. Andrew's Cathedral on Emma street.

Mrs. Muramoto is hale and hearty and is now planning a trip to Watsonville, California, where one of her sons resides. She smiled when she was told that she was the oldest Japanese resident in Honolulu and Hawaii, and readily posed for a picture. She came here in July of last year, and expects to live in Honolulu after her visit to the mainland.

CHILD GETS SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach or Bowels

A laxative today leaves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! It coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

PAMPHLET SUMS UP YEAR'S WORK OF ASSOCIATION

"With One Accord" is Title of Annual Review of Hawaiian Evangelical Activities

"With One Accord" is the title of an attractive pamphlet, issued from the press of the Star-Bulletin, which sums up the work of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association for the last year.

Aside from containing the important reports delivered at the last annual meeting of the association, the pamphlet gives interesting tables showing the scope of the work of the association at the present time.

These tables show that on Oahu there are 21 churches, including 10 Hawaiian, in the association's jurisdiction. These churches have a total of 484 members, and are presided over by 26 ministers. Kauai has 15 churches in the association, with a total of 873 members. Hawaii has 33 churches with 2841 members. Of the churches on the Big Island, 22 are Hawaiian. Maui, Molokai and Lanai have 38 churches with 1298 members. Of these churches, 29 are Hawaiian. Broaden All Branches.

During the last year the scope of work has been broadened in all the departments, including Hawaiian, Portuguese, Chinese, Japanese, Sunday school and educational. The educational department is one of the largest divisions of the work. It includes Kawaiahae seminary, Mills Institute, Bible school, Japanese Christian Orphanage, Hilo boarding school, Japanese Christian boarding school, Kohala girls' school, Maunaloa seminary, Beretania street settlement, Alexander settlement, Waialeale settlement and Central Kona settlement.

The present officers of the board of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association are F. J. Lowrey, president; A. C. Alexander, vice-president; Rev. Henry P. Judd, acting corresponding secretary; Rev. J. L. Hopwood, recording secretary; Theodore Richards, treasurer and W. J. Forbes, auditor.

The officers of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association are Rev. Stephen L. Desha, moderator; Rev. C. M. Kamakawiwole, vice-moderator; P. Danson Kellett, Jr., scribe.

GOOD HALLOWE'EN PROGRAMS PUT ON BY BOYS' CLUBS

About 100 young men and women had a very pleasant evening at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday. The Halloween social was given by the five clubs of the intermediate department, and each club succeeded in putting on a program so entirely different from what the other clubs presented that all present were enjoying a round of pleasure the whole evening.

Cooke Hall had been decorated for the occasion. The Get Ready club had constructed a witch's cave in one corner of the hall where the future was revealed him by a gypsy. The interior of the cave was lighted up by several skulls and other weird lights.

The Washington club had for their stunt a Chinese tea house. The Washington boys, in Chinese costumes, waited on those who visited their booth by serving them tea, candy and various Chinese delicacies.

The XX club and Knights of Kamehameha gave a joint program which was greatly enjoyed by all. R. E. Lambert, Mr. Ness and H. B. Newcomb helped the clubs on the more difficult parts of their jubilee concert, and all did exceptionally well considering the short time they had for preparing their parts.

The El Globo club then presented an art lecture. Paul Super, who posed as "Professor Spitzendorf," just returned from an extended trip over the world collecting pictures for the Oahu College art gallery, lectured to his class on the different pieces of art he had brought home with him.

PRISONERS STAGE TWENTY FEATURE VAUDEVILLE BILL

High Sheriff Jarrett Allows Entertainment Committee to Put on Stunts

When prisoners of the territory have been so treated that they will work alone, practically without guard, when they maintain their own police, and keep order in their ranks through their own vigilance, and when they begin to take a pride in their own organization, it would seem that all has been accomplished that any warden could desire.

But High Sheriff Jarrett and Warden William P. Jarrett has not stopped here. "You can't keep a man employed through mere work," he says, "there are energies which require other exercise and I have never known a man in the world who could keep a healthy mind unless once in a while he relaxed and simply played."

"They say that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," but my observation leads me to conclude that there is something more in the saying than applies to children only.

"There's so much of the boy in every man that about half the time you have to treat him as a boy, or sooner or later there will be an explosion."

In pursuance of this policy Jarrett has encouraged the men of the Oahu prison to arrange their own amusements.

Organized in amusement committees they often plan and execute the most complicated programs, such as the one on a recent Sunday night, when one of 20 numbers was presented.

The acts ranged from the playing of a Chinese band, which is said to be the best of its kind on the island of Oahu, to buck and wing dancing.

The evening opened with the playing of the mandolin club of four pieces, followed by the glee club, accompanied by guitars and the piano.

Then two Filipinos went through such elaborate and skilful feats of juggling as would have been a credit to any vaudeville stage in the world. Next came a guitar duet with the instruments played with the steel and after the music a buck and wing dance that sent little ripples of laughter through the crowding ranks of convicts. After a bass solo the crowning event of the evening was staged, a Japanese dance, the stork dance. Looked Like Egyptian Crane.

With his legs wound tightly with cotton stripes, and a blanket caught over his head with one hand, upon which was fixed a long paper cone to represent a stork's neck, he then went through various contortions, until as the spectators watched he seemed to lose all semblance to the form of a man and it was an actual crane somewhere on the mudflats of the lower Nile, fishing in the yellow waters, or going to sleep with his head thrust under one wing. Thereafter the Japanese lay on his back and wrapping his feet so that one represented a woman and the other a man, passed them through a series of phantastic contortions.

A few other numbers and music closed an evening of entertainment which might have cost big money to witness in some vaudeville house. "The men sleep better after such a performance," said Jarrett, "and they work better the next day." These things merely emphasize to them the fact that while they are in prison they will have to work hard and steadily, but it also points out to them that so long as they attempt to improve their own conditions we will do all in our power to help them.

The annual meeting of the Maui Teachers' Association will be held at Lahaina on Friday, Nov. 26, adjournment to be taken on the same. The program is being prepared by B. O. Wist, principal of the Lahaina school, who is also arranging for a luncheon to be held in connection with the meeting.

The Kansas national forest consisting of 135,000 acres has been abolished and was thrown open to entry on November 1.

Harms Students

More Than Most Anyone Else.

The Chief of the Presbyterian Hospital in N. Y., Dr. Fisher, tells one very easy way to avoid some physical ills.

His comments on

are most interesting (see letter in southeast corner).

If the subject appeals to you, try leaving off coffee and tea entirely, use Instant Postum and carefully note, day by day, the return to health and strength.

A level teaspoonful of Instant Postum in an ordinary cup of hot water dissolves instantly and makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more, and some people who like strong things put in a heaping spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream.

Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future.

Postum comes in two forms.

Regular (must be boiled).

Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, but is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in cup of hot water.

"There's a Reason" for POSTUM

SPEAKS OUT.
Dr. C. Irving Fisher, for a quarter century at the head of New York's great Presbyterian Hospital, says in the New York Times:

"Coffee poisoning is becoming constantly more common in this country, especially among students, whom it harms more than it would harm almost anybody else."

"Coffee intoxication does not lead to wife beating, but its physiological effects upon some of its victims are almost as bad as those of alcoholic poisoning. We continually find at the various clinics signs of the harm done by the excessive use of tea and coffee among children."

"Surely this is quite preventable. Children not infrequently appear whose nervous and digestive systems have been wrecked by these two beverages."
